ABDUL YASEEN

---

Abdul Yaseen is an award-winning chef and a modern Indian food connoisseur with a reputation for excellence both in the UK and overseas. Moving from Jaipur to London fifteen years ago, he was part of the founding team and success of the Cinnamon group of restaurants taking the brand to national level. His accolades include, winning the British BBQ Championships and the Canapé Cup at Square Meal Venues & Events for three years consecutively.

He is thrilled to announce his first solo project Darbaar. Chef Abdul says:

"My vision of Darbaar is to recreate memories where my diners will love to host their tables and encourage sharing the food which once was the charm of the royal courts. Love for food has shaped the course of my life, taking me on a fascinating journey from India to the UK where I have spent over a decade promoting modern Indian cuisine to London restaurant-goers.

Now I'm delighted to offer Darbaar to the capital and I look forward to giving you a royal welcome soon."

GETTING TO DARBAAR

PUBLIC TRANSPORT

Public transport is mainly via Liverpool Street station (Central, Hammersmith & City, Metropolitan and Circle lines) which is just a few minutes' walk to the restaurant. Moorgate (Northern line) and Shoreditch High Street (London overground) stations can also be found within a short walk away. Regular bus services to most destinations pass along nearby Bishopsgate.

TAXIS

There is no dedicated collection or drop off point for taxis, however, the area off Appold street can be used for arrival and a formal taxi rank is located approximately 50 yards further South along Appold Street.

PARKING

There is a Car Park 3 minutes away from the restaurant on Hearn Street.
